The 20th of December 2016

2016 FAI F1E EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP FOR FREE FLIGHT MODEL AIRCRAFT
18-24 JULY 2016, TURDA, ROMANIA
BULLETIN 1

ORGANIZER: The Romanian Modelling Federation, in co-operation with Romanian Aero Club, City Hall Turda and military authorities.

DATE: 18-24 July 2016

VENUE: The town of Turda, situated North-West of Romania, in Transilvania, 35 km far from Cluj Napoca, and 435 km far from Bucharest.

The flying site is on "Bogata" hills close to city of Turda (15 km), where 2003, 2007 World Championships F1E and European Championships 1996, 2000, 2006, 2010 and 2012 took place.

Starting with 1994, we organize two World Cup contests every year in "Bogata" hill.

The height difference between lowest and highest point of that area is 100-200 m and the site is grass covered.

There are no agricultural fields, houses, trees or any other obstacles within the area.

The European Championship and the two World Cup contests will take place on the flying site South of Bogata Hill, where 2011 World Cup and 2003 World Championship took place. The two opposed slopes are oriented South (to Alba Iulia) and North (to Turda). The wind direction for the two slopes in August is favourable for the contest. The access road is repaired, allowing access by car to the contest site.

Turda can be reached from any direction driving on E81.

Cluj can be reached by plane from any direction by car, train, and airplane.

Campia Turzii (15 km far from Turda) can be reached from any direction by train.
